

Amendments to the Specification:

A replacement specification in a format following the guidelines suggested by the examiner is attached following the signature page of this document. The replacement specification includes the amended title proposed herein and amendments made to overcome the drawing objection. The replacement specification also moves some description and drawings from the appendices into the main text of the specification.